

What to do when you call?

1. Leave a detailed message stating your question or the problem you need resolved. This will let me know what you need. Many problems can be resolved before contacting you by phone or gives me an idea of what information I need to have available before the call.
2. Don't leave a message or text simply stating "Call me"
3. State your name in your message