

Renewals for ICHRA and QSEHRA Plans

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL BILL

- All Health Insurance plans reimbursed with an ICHRA or QSEHRA plans are Individual Market Plans
- All Individual Marketplace plans follow the calendar year and end on December 31st regardless of the start date.
- You must complete your renewal no later than December 31st.
- Your insurance carrier will contact you to let you know what your new premium will be starting January 1st.
- If you like your plan and are okay with the new price you can keep it. You must pay the new premium by December 31st.
- If your current plan or the new plan you choose cost more than your company's reimbursement you must enroll off exchange to benefit from pre-tax payroll deductions. This does not apply to DC residents.
- If you would like to change plans or review other options you can visit the Marketplace website in your state to see all plans and prices in one place.
- With the exception of DC you will purchase your plan off exchange.
- For instructions on how to enroll in a new plan email me the name of the company and the name of the new plan.
- I will send you what you need to enroll
- Once enrolled send me a copy of your first invoice using the Secure Document Upload Link

- Depending on the platform your company uses for ICHRA and QSEHRA enrollments you may need to fill out a Reimbursement form to report your new premium amount or update the reimbursement amount on the platform your company uses if you have an employee login.
- For questions about the renewal process contact me at 571-636-9366
