

Renewals for ICHRA and QSEHRA Plans

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL BILL

- All Health Insurance plans reimbursed with an ICHRA or QSEHRA plans are Individual Market Plans
- All Individual Marketplace plans follow the calendar year and begin on January 1st and end on December 31st.
- Your insurance carrier will contact you to let you know what your new premium will be starting January 1, 2024.
- If you like your plan and are okay with the new price you can keep it. You must pay the new premium by January 1, 2024
- If you do not like the new price or would like to change your plan you can do so during Open Enrollment from November 1st through January 15th each year.
- See updates for your corresponding state.
- Depending on the platform your company uses for ICHRA and QSEHRA enrollments you may need to fill out a Reimbursement form to report your new premium amount or update the reimbursement amount on the platform your company uses if you have an employee login.
- If you are in the state of Virginia you will need to create an account on the new Virginia Health Benefit Exchange. Virginia residents will no longer have access to healthcare.gov for enrollments for plans with effective dates beginning January 1, 2024 or after. See Updates for Virginia only for more details.
- For the renewal process in DC contact Michael Jones at 703-819 3681
